

THE MISER

A miser has been defined as one who is perfectly willing to "let the rest of the world go buy." You are not being miserly when you purchase your insurance from us. You are just showing good judgment.

Mrs. Marvin Vadas and daughter Karol spent the day in West Palm Beach Friday.

PTA Elects New Officers
At South Bay Schools

The Parent Teacher Association of South Bay met at the school Monday evening and elected officers for the ensuing year. Shore Plantation was re-elected president. Mrs. Ruth Harrell of Bean City was elected vice-president. Mrs. Ruth Murphy was elected secretary and C. E. Campbell treasurer. Mrs. B. Jackson of the South Shore is the historian elect. Officers will be installed at the May meeting.

During the business session the $5000 fund was set aside for playground equipment. A phonograph was arranged to be supplied to the lower grades. The Eight hGrade put on a play, "School Days," using for the first time the newly repainted scenery. The scenery was painted by members of the eighth grade under the supervision of Principal Editha Eckman. The play was a success according to reports of those present, and very attractive.

Attendance prize for the evening was also won by the eighth grade.

An exhibit of school art was a feature of the evening with a winner picked in each home room. The judges were Mrs. H. O. Plank, Mrs. Fred Sibley and Mrs. Editha Eckman.

Jeanie Critchfield was winner of the first place in the first grade and Mike Chalanchin first in the second grade on their display.

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils made paper mache animals. Bobby Dillow won first in the third and fourth grades with his horse. Grace Scarborough was first in the fifth and sixth grades with a rhinoceros. The winning drawings and paper mache animals will be exhibited at the Norton Art Gallery the first week in May.

A salad course, cake and coffee were served by the hostesses for the evening.
